

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home. The law has been effective, I used to receive multiple calls per day, now I hardly receive any.